SUBJECT: Applications for Council Membership

The SD Council on Developmental Disabilities will have one (1) vacancy for a person with an intellectual and developmental disability, one (1) vacancy for a parent or guardian of an adult with an intellectual and developmental disability; and one (1) vacancy for a community based service provider.

The Council Office is gathering names of people who are interested in these positions on the Council. Those names will be forwarded to the Governor's Office for final selection in summer 2017.

The SD Council on Developmental Disabilities is involved in advocacy, capacity building and systems change efforts on behalf of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities across the state. Through the DD Act the Council has federal funds available for training, outreach, demonstration projects, coalition building, etc. The Council's work involves requesting grant applications in areas it has defined, reviewing the applications, and making funding decisions.

Attached you will find the Application for Membership, Council member Job description, federal definition of developmental disability and the Mission Statement and Statement of Principles.

Please complete the information for yourself or share with others who may be interested. The deadline for receiving names is March 31, 2017. Please contact me at 605-773-6369 or 1-800-265-9684 if you have any questions.

MISSION STATEMENT

To assist people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families in achieving the quality of life they desire through advocacy, systems change and capacity building.

STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES

- ❖ People with intellectual and developmental disabilities:
 - Receive person-centered services and supports in an efficient, coordinated, timely manner.
 - Exercise self-determination and have opportunities to make informed choices.
 - Have opportunities for meaningful, integrated, competitive employment.
 - Are integrated into community life and make contributions to their families, community, state and nation.
 - Have opportunities for lifelong learning, relationships, and live in homes of their choice.
 - Are free of abuse, neglect, exploitation and violations of their human and legal rights.
- ❖ People with intellectual and developmental disabilities and their families have strengths and personal goals that are recognized, supported and encouraged.
- ❖ The lives of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities are enhanced when families and communities are provided information, services and other assistance.

IMPLEMENTATION STATEMENT

In order to create an environment in which people with intellectual and developmental disabilities direct their own lives and participate in the community as stated in the Statement of Principles, the Council will:

- plan, advocate and support systems change;
- provide information and education;
- monitor legislation, state plans and policies;
- promote and support best practices; and,
- promote partnerships among people with intellectual and developmental disabilities, their families, coalitions, state agencies and service providers.

Federal Areas of Emphasis include quality assurance, education and early intervention, childcare, health, employment, housing, transportation, recreation, and other services available or offered to individuals in a community, including formal and informal community supports, that affect quality of life.

FEDERAL DEFINITION OF DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY – Public Law 106-402

In General, the term “developmental disability” means a severe, chronic disability of an individual that –

- A) is attributable to a mental or physical impairment or combination of mental and physical impairments;
- B) is manifested before the individual attains age 22;
- C) is likely to continue indefinitely;
- D) results in substantial functional limitations in three or more of the following areas of major life activity:
 - (i) self-care,
 - (ii) receptive and expressive language,
 - (iii) learning,
 - (iv) mobility,
 - (v) self-direction,
 - (vi) capacity for independent living, and
 - (vii) economic self-sufficiency; and
- E) reflects the individual’s need for a combination and sequence of special, interdisciplinary, or generic services, individualized supports, or other forms of assistance that is of lifelong or extended duration and is individually planned and coordinated,

Infants & Young Children – An individual from birth to age 9, inclusive, who has substantial developmental delay or specific congenital or acquired conditions, may be considered to have a developmental disability without meeting 3 or more of the criteria described earlier if the individual, without services and supports, has a high probability of meeting those criteria later in life.
