

What is Dakota at Home?

It's a free information and referral service provided by the Department of Human Services.

Who should call Dakota at Home?

Individuals with disabilities and aging South Dakotans and their family members or caregivers.

What information is available?

Dakota at Home can help connect you to a variety of services and resources including:

-  Caregiver Services
-  Community living options to live in your home or with others
-  Home and Community-Based Services
-  Support to maintain or regain your independence
-  Services to remain living at home longer

How does Dakota at Home work?

Call Dakota at Home 1-833-663-9673 or visit dakotaathome.org to learn more or to locate services in your community.