

Present:
Jesse A. Saperstein
Taking the 'Dis' Out of Disability

Wednesday, October 1st, 2015
@ 11:45am
Presentation 12pm-1pm @ The Swiftel Center

Jesse is a best-selling author, autism advocate, and motivational speaker. Jesse also has Asperger's syndrome (AS). Individuals with AS are impaired by a profound lack of social skills, common sense, and resistance to change in routine. On the other hand, they are also gifted with honesty, integrity, and focus, and high aptitudes in certain areas.

Jesse has authored two books, conquered the 2,174-mile Appalachian Trail, spoken in front of the United Nations, to Schools across the United States, and the Mall of America. A unique opportunity, register today!
