Preventive Strategies and Positive Solutions for the Workplace®

Held each October, National Disability Employment Awareness Month (NDEAM) is a national campaign that raises awareness about disability employment issues and celebrates the many and varied contributions of America's workers with disabilities.

“Disability in the Workplace”
“AT WORK IT’S WHAT PEOPLE CAN DO THAT MATTERS”

Joe Dreesen

is a Shareholder in the Omaha, Nebraska office of Jackson Lewis P.C. The firm has a nationwide practice, representing management in all aspects of labor relations and employment law. Mr. Dreesen’s practice includes National Labor Relations Board proceedings; collective bargaining; arbitrations; employment discrimination; workplace safety & health; wage and hour; public-sector labor relations and employment law; and general counseling in all aspects of workplace law.

Mr. Dreesen is a frequent lecturer to employer associations and business groups, and has published numerous articles on various labor and employment law matters.

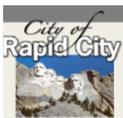

Kathleen R. Barrow

is a Shareholder in the Rapid City, South Dakota, office of Jackson Lewis P.C. She has designed welfare benefit plans and executive compensation arrangements, and has counseled sponsors and administrators of these types of plans, for 15 years.

Ms. Barrow has appeared on behalf of clients before the national offices of the United States Treasury and the Department of Labor Employee Benefit Security Administration.

Ms. Barrow actively participates in national coalitions of counsel that assist employers in defending audits of welfare and pension benefit plans. She advises clients and counsel across the country with regard to defined contribution arrangements that provide post-retirement health benefits to employees.
