

South Dakota Department of Human Services

Division of Developmental Disabilities

Joey Younie, Director

Who is the Division of Developmental Disabilities?

The Division of Developmental Disabilities is part of the South Dakota Department of Human Services

We work to ensure that people with developmental disabilities have equal opportunities and receive the services and supports they need to live and work in South Dakota communities

Principles of the Division of Developmental Disabilities

We support people to participate in the life of their community

We honor the importance of relationships with family and friends

We ensure quality services are available and accessible

We work with providers to enhance services while respecting the dignity of risk and the importance of health and safety

We respect and value cultural diversity

We are good stewards of public funds

We facilitate federal and state funded services

We function as a Medicaid operating agency and facilitate two Medicaid waivers
