

Call: 1-833-663-9673
Email: dakotaathome@state.sd.us
Visit: dakotaathome.org

We're here to answer your questions.

South Dakota's Aging and Disability
Resource Center, a service of the Department of Human Services

What is Dakota at Home?

It's a free information and referral service provided by the Department of Human Services.

Who should call Dakota at Home?

Individuals with disabilities, aging South Dakotans, family members, and caregivers.

What information is available?

Dakota at Home can help connect you to a variety of services and resources including:

- ✓ Caregiver Services
- ✓ Community living options to live in your home or with others
- ✓ Home and Community-Based Services
- ✓ Support to maintain or regain your independence
- ✓ Services to remain living at home longer

How does Dakota at Home work?

To locate services in your community or to learn more about Dakota at Home

Call: 1-833-663-9673

Email: dakotaathome@state.sd.us

Visit us online at: dakotaathome.org