

Division of Developmental Disabilities

DDD Stakeholder Collective

January 25, 2023

Mission:

To ensure that people with intellectual and developmental disabilities have equal opportunities and receive the services and supports they need to live and work in South Dakota communities.

Why a Stakeholder Collective?

- As stakeholders, we have common goals, vested interest, and shared knowledge
- DDD places priority and value in fostering open and clear communication with people who access services offered as well as those who provide services
- Sharing information and asking for feedback on a regular basis is key to continuous quality & improvement

Who is included in the Collective?

- SD Advocates for Change
- DD Council members
- SD Supporting Families Community of Practice members
- Community Support Providers – CHOICES and FS 360
- CHOICES Case Management Providers
- Family Support 360 Coordinators
- Division of Developmental Disabilities staff

How often will the Collective convene?

- Quarterly
- REPLACE any meetings typically held with each group listed previously during the following months:
 - January 25, 2023
 - April 26, 2023
 - July 26, 2023
 - October 25, 2023

Meeting Agreements & Navigating Zoom

- Mute microphone when not speaking
- One person talks at a time –
