

Recreational Services – Provision or identification of opportunities for the involvement of clients in meaningful leisure time activities. These may include such things as participation in community affairs and other recreation activities that may be competitive, active, or quiet. These services do not require the IL client to meet economic need.

Examples of services that can be provided in this category:

- Provide information on Ski for Light, PVA hunting or fishing or Special Olympics

Implemented 8/25/2015